

Dear TBO Community,

Welcome to the 2nd edition of the "Beacon-ette"! The Beacon-ette is now more compact and convenient, with all the information and activities on our website. Temple Beth Ohr is excited to continue to embrace this new tech era, and we invite you to explore our various communication channels, including the Beacon-ette, E-blasts, and our website.

Getting the word out at TBO takes many routes...

Greeting from your TBO Presidents:

Hope everyone is enjoying their summer. Our new Board of Directors was installed on July 19th. As this new year starts, it is a great time to think about joining a committee! There are lots of activities coming up... keep on top of everything with the weekly e-blasts, Beacon-ette and our website. Thanks to everyone who helped in any way with our Fireworks booth; numbers are not all in yet, but it looks like we did about what we did last year.

Greeting from your Rabbi Len Muroff:

"Practice random acts of intelligence and senseless acts of self-control". I am shaken by the assassination attempt on the life of the former President and glad that he is physically fine. Violence and abuse have no place in our society or in our civic and religious organizations. It is vital that we always speak and act respectfully. Let's do our best to lengthen the time between thought and action.
