

THE BEACON-ETTE

November 2025

A Season of Gratitude

What a wonderful time to be part of our Temple family! As we wrap up the High Holy Days and step into the season of gratitude, our hearts are full of thanks for our community, for the blessings we share, and for the joy of being together. We give thanks for the release of hostages and continue to pray for peace and healing for Israel and for all whose lives have been touched by the war.

As we look ahead to the lights of Hanukkah, may gratitude fill our homes and kindness guide our days. A heartfelt thank-you to everyone who contributed to our High Holy Days appeal. Your generosity keeps our Temple shining bright and helps our community continue to thrive.

Wishing you and your loved ones a warm and joyful Happy Thanksgiving!

Message from Rabbi Muroff: Between Gratitude and Grief

*"A man doesn't have time in his life to have time for everything.
He doesn't have seasons enough to have a season for every purpose. Ecclesiastes Was wrong about that."
-Yehuda Amichai (Noted Israeli Poet)*

There really is only so much time.

We have now completed the 5786/2025 fall Jewish holiday cycle. Unlike most years, it is not clear how to feel. Do we languish in the happiness generated by the release of the hostages? Do we focus on the two-year anniversary of the murders of victims of October 7th?

Both feelings have arrived simultaneously, and both are deserving of our attention. We have been carrying so much for so long that it is hard to know how to walk while holding two intense and traumatic and contradictory feelings.

We know we must hold both as we have done so on many occasions in our lives. Yet this time feels different in a way that is difficult to describe, and still we must move forward.

There is no reason to avoid conflicting sentiments. We must indeed hold both as best we can.

Let's celebrate and acknowledge the release of the hostages. It is indeed miraculous that they have returned. It is what we have been praying for and talking about for two years.

May it be a season of leaning into happiness and gratitude, even while holding grief and disbelief. Let's make the most of each day.

Happy Thanksgiving!

A Message from our Co-Presidents

A very BIG thank you to EVERYONE who worked hard during our High Holy Days from the set-ups through break-the-fast. We especially want to thank all of the volunteers from the Membership and Religious Committees who helped organize, work the tables and greet everyone as they attended services.

A special Thank You to Rabbi Muroff for all the preparation, hard work and inspiring services; to Cantor Newman and Roger Green, thank you for your beautiful voice and music, which added so much to our services.

We are very pleased to announce that we reached our High Holy Days appeal! So much gratitude to everyone who donated.

Our committees try very hard to plan events and activities that you want to see or do. Keep reading the eblasts and our website as there are many events coming up! We are also working hard to communicate about events that are happening in the larger Jewish community.
