Mishpatim

Exodus 21:1-24:18

Moses, Aaron, and 72 others ascend the mountain to see God. Moses goes on alone and even he does not see God (24:1-18). Being in a relationship with God, and a person, is not about proof. Rather it requires a leap of faith and a belief that the other cares for us and has unconditional love for us. Today, it is our role to show love to our families, and those not in our community. Ethical laws call on us to show compassion to all. -Rabbi Len Muroff

Prayer for Israeli Hostages

As for our brethren, the entire House of Israel who still remain in distress and captivity, whether on sea or on land, may God have compassion on them, and bring them from distress to relief, from darkness to light, from servitude to redemption, at this moment, speedily, very soon; and let us say Amen.

Prayer for Israel

May the one who blessed our ancestors, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah, bless the State of Israel, representing the beginning of the flowering of our redemption. Defend her with Your grace and spread over her Your shelter of peace. May the Holy One bless the soldiers of the Israeli Defense Forces and protect and guard all the captives. May the Master of the universe have compassion upon them and remove them from darkness and the shadow of death, break their bonds, deliver them from their distress and return them quickly to the embrace of their families. May God make it that our enemies who rise against us be struck down before our soldiers. And may You bring peace to the land, and everlasting joy to all its inhabitants. And we say amen.
