Tetzaveh

Exodus 27:20-30:10

This was one of the key elements in the Sinai covenant, when the Israelites, having already said twice, "All that God says, we will do," then said, "All that God says, we will do and we will hear [ve-nishma]" (Ex. 24:7). It is the nishma - listening, hearing, heeding, responding - that is the key religious act. In time, Esther really listened to Mordecai after initially declining to act as she ought to. Do not be hard on yourself. You do get a second chance to do the right thing.

The Sabbath
By Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel

The Sabbath, thus, is more than an armistice, more than an interlude; it is a profound conscious harmony of man and the world, a sympathy for all things and a participation in the spirit that unites what is below and what is above.

Six days a week we wrestle with the world, wringing profit from the earth; on the Sabbath we especially care for the seed of eternity planted in the soul.

For the Sabbath is joy, holiness, and rest; joy is part of this world; holiness and rest are something of the world to come.

Time and space are interrelated. To overlook either of them is to be partially blind. What we plead against is man's unconditional surrender to space, his enslavement to things. We must not forget that it is not a thing that lends significance to a moment; it is the moment that lends significance to things.

Prayer for Israel by Hannah Ellenson

אלוהינו ואלוהי אבותינו ואבותינו

Our God and God of our ancestors,
We ask Your blessing for the State of Israel and for all of Israel's inhabitants.

מקור חיים Source of Life, bless and strengthen those who defend the land and ensure their safe and speedy return home.

Protect them and guide them.

קדוש ברוך הוא Holy and Blessed One, show Israel's leaders your path so they may act with wisdom, courage, and dedication and that they may be unwavering in their pursuit of peace. Strengthen their hearts but keep them from hardening.

בעל הרחמים, Master of Compassion, help us hold the humanity and the heartache of the Jewish people while also holding the humanity and the dignity of the Palestinian people.

As we are made in your image, remind us of your ways. Spread over us your shelter of peace and fulfill the vision of your prophets:

“They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not take up sword against nation; they shall never again know war.”

Together, we say: Amen
