Both Purim and Passover deal with Jews being spared annihilation due to the efforts of people who were initially reluctant. The Jews in the Purim story are spared because Mordecai encouraged his cousin Esther to fight for them before her husband the King. In Egypt, the Israelites were saved due to God and Moses working together to fight for the release of the enslaved People. Like Esther and Moses, we are all obligated to overcome any qualms, and to act forcefully to save our people from danger and death. Like our writings say, "Tzedek, Tzedek, tirdorf. Righteousness, righteousness you shall pursue." Fighting for justice is at the core of Jewish life. It is not optional.

Prayer for Israeli Hostages

As for our brethren, the entire House of Israel who still remain in distress and captivity, whether on sea or on land, may God have compassion on them, and bring them from distress to relief, from darkness to light, from servitude to redemption, at this moment, speedily, very soon; and let us say Amen.

Prayer for Israel

May the one who blessed our ancestors, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah, bless the State of Israel, representing the beginning of the flowering of our redemption. Defend her with Your grace and spread over her Your shelter of peace. May the Holy One bless the soldiers of the Israeli Defense Forces and protect and guard all the captives. May the Master of the universe have compassion upon them and remove them from darkness and the shadow of death, break their bonds, deliver them from their distress and return them quickly to the embrace of their families. May God make it that our enemies who rise against us be struck down before our soldiers. And may You bring peace to the land, and everlasting joy to all its inhabitants. And we say amen.
