Tzav

Leviticus 6:1-8:36

Passover is known as Zeman Hayruteinu/the time of our freedom. The People were freed from slavery in Egypt, and they were then able to dream of a bright future. It was not an easy transition as they had much to learn about being free people involved in a covenantal relationship with God. There were many fits and starts. In time they came to understand that there was much they did not understand but they took a leap of faith and committed to walking with God and acting Godly. Living freely as Jewish people permits us to grow in our understanding of God and Jewish life. This Passover let's freely reaffirm our devotion to God and to all of God's children.

Prayer for Peace

May we see the day when war and bloodshed cease,
When a great peace will embrace the whole world.

Then nation will not threaten nation,
And the human family will not again know war.

For all who live on earth shall realize
We have not come into being to hate or to destroy.

We have come into being to praise, to labor, and to love.

Compassionate God, bless the leaders of all nations
With the power of compassion.

Fulfill the promise conveyed in Scripture:
I will bring peace to the land,
And you shall lie down and no one shall terrify you.

I will rid the land of vicious beasts
And it shall not be ravaged by war.

Let justice and righteousness flow like a mighty stream.

Let God's peace fill the earth as the waters fill the sea.

A Prayer for Our Country

Our God and God of our ancestors, with mercy accept our prayer on behalf of our country and its government. Pour out Your blessing upon this land, upon its inhabitants, upon its leaders, its judges, officers, and officials, who faithfully devote themselves to the needs of the public. Help them understand the rules of justice You have decreed, so that peace and security, happiness and freedom, will never depart from our land.

Adonai, God whose spirit is in all creatures, we pray that Your spirit be awakened within all the inhabitants of our land. Uproot from our hearts, hatred and malice, jealousy and strife. Plant love and companionship, peace and friendship, among the many peoples and faiths who dwell in our nation.
Grant us the knowledge to judge justly, the wisdom to act with compassion, and the understanding and courage to root out poverty from our land.

May it be Your will that our land be a blessing to all who dwell on earth, and may You cause all people to dwell in friendship and freedom. Speedily fulfill the vision of Your prophets: "Nations shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore." "For all of them, from the least of them to the greatest, shall know Me." And let us say, Amen.
