Tzav

Leviticus 6:1-8:36

In the 1970s, a 'Matzah of Hope' was added to the Seder Table. This matzo, which we set aside then, as a symbol of hope for the Jews of the Soviet Union, reminded us then of the indestructible links that exist between us. Today, oranges are often added, to show women and the LGBTQi community that they too are respected and valued. The goal is to realize that at this Zeman Chayruteinu, the Festival of Freedom, that we must actively work to show that everyone is one of God's children. -Rabbi Muroff

Prayer for Israeli Hostages

As for our brethren, the entire House of Israel who still remain in distress and captivity, whether on sea or on land, may God have compassion on them, and bring them from distress to relief, from darkness to light, from servitude to redemption, at this moment, speedily, very soon; and let us say Amen.

Prayer for Israel

May the one who blessed our ancestors, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah, bless the State of Israel, representing the beginning of the flowering of our redemption. Defend her with Your grace and spread over her Your shelter of peace. May the Holy One bless the soldiers of the Israeli Defense Forces and protect and guard all the captives. May the Master of the universe have compassion upon them and remove them from darkness and the shadow of death, break their bonds, deliver them from their distress and return them quickly to the embrace of their families. May God make it that our enemies who rise against us be struck down before our soldiers. And may You bring peace to the land, and everlasting joy to all its inhabitants. And we say amen.
