Achrei Mot-Kedoshim

Leviticus 16:1-20:27

Lag BaOmer carries the theme of loving and respecting one's fellow (ahavat Yisrael). The day is marked by bonfires and the like. All over the world, on Lag B'Omer (33rd day of the Omer) it is customary to spend the day outside, enjoying the natural beauty of G-d's world. It becomes a wonderful opportunity for singing, sharing and enjoying the camaraderie of our friends and neighbors. Today we must face the challenging realities that rage around us but we must also recall the blessings we have in our lives. This day stresses the joy that we possess by being a part of the larger Jewish community.

Abridged Prayer for Peace
By Rabbi Nachman

May it be Your will, Holy One, our God, our ancestors' God, that you erase war and bloodshed from the world and in its place draw down a great and glorious peace so that nation shall not lift up sword against nation neither shall they learn war any more.

Rather, may all the inhabitants of the earth recognize and deeply know this great truth:
that we have not come into this world for strife and division nor for hatred and rage, nor provocation and bloodshed.

We have come here only to encounter You, eternally blessed One.

So may it be.
And we say:
Amen.

A Prayer
By Cantor Baruch Harlap

He who blessed our forefathers

Abraham, Isaac and Jacob

May He bless

The soldiers of

The IDF

May He bless

The heroes, the brave,

The Army of the United States

Lead them safe

Send them success

And we all say

Amen
