Chukat-Balak Numbers 19:1-25:9

Rabbi Akiva taught: 'Love your neighbor as yourself' (Leviticus 19:18). This is the most important rule in the Torah. (Jerusalem Talmud Nedarim 30b)

Without love, it's impossible to treat others as they deserve. Each person is likened to an entire world in Judaism. Remembering this helps us to see the value in each and every person we come across, and can help us remember the key Torah commandment to be kind.

Abridged Prayer for Peace
By Rabbi Nachman

May it be Your will, Holy One, our God, our ancestors' God, that you erase war and bloodshed from the world and in its place draw down a great and glorious peace so that nation shall not lift up sword against nation neither shall they learn war any more.

Rather, may all the inhabitants of the earth recognize and deeply know this great truth:
that we have not come into this world for strife and division nor for hatred and rage, nor provocation and bloodshed.

We have come here only to encounter You, eternally blessed One.

So may it be.
And we say:
Amen.

A Prayer
By Cantor Baruch Harlap

He who blessed our forefathers

Abraham, Isaac and Jacob

May He bless

The soldiers of

The IDF

May He bless

The heroes, the brave,

The Army of the United States

Lead them safe

Send them success

And we all say

Amen
